A New Meeting-Place in Cheranastico!

We have mentioned before some of the struggles of the mission-church in Cheranastico, in finding a suitable place to worship. The church building that was built by Max in that town was taken over by folk who were opposed to Max' teaching, who occasionally seemed disposed to cooperate with our mission, and at other times not. It was an on-again, off-again relationship, on which we could not really rely for use of a building. So the brothers in Cheranastico met for a few years in the back yard of Abram Custodio (David's brother, who lives in Cheranastico), under a tarp to keep off the rain. It was functional, but not optimal.

This year we were able to see the new facility that has been secured for their use (pictured), with real walls and roof! We rejoice that the Lord is meeting this need, and growing the mission-church there in Cheranastico.

Raúl Doing Better

Raúl expresses his great thanks to you, dear praying friends, for your prayers on his behalf. In our June newsletter we shared with you about the accident that put Elder Raúl Capiz Bautista in the hospital. Bill asked Raúl about his progress, and found that while he still struggles with his injuries, he is doing much better, and is fully able to work, as well as fulfill his duties as elder there in Paracho, and help with the mission in Cheranastico! We rejoice that the Lord is answering the prayers of His people!

Reformation-Day Conference

We had some technical issues that kept us from making a successful Skype link between the conference in Mexico City, and the town of Paracho this year, so we simply gave the same conference material in both locations. This was the most well-attended conference so far in Paracho, and it was gratifying to see the students eagerly taking notes and asking pertinent questions. Our subject this year was William Tyndale, and the students quickly made the connection between this most important English Reformer, who gave us our English Bible, and their own Max Lathrop, who gave them their Tarascan Bible.

We thank you for your faithful prayers and support for our work among the P'urepecha peoples in Mexico. We covet your continued prayer for our pastors and elders and leaders in these tiny towns. Please also pray for Misael Custodio, and his work there, as well in Mexico City. Your prayers are more valuable than you can possibly realize! How God delights to shape the outworking of His providence around the prayers of His people!

And please let us know how we can be praying for you.
